❑ There is no change in my family's income, and we have no self-employment income.

❑ I am self-employed, and have included proof of gross household income received in the most recent full calendar month for Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS) eligibility purposes. I have completed the DSHS Programs' Self-Employment or Rental Income Worksheet for the most recent full calendar month; however, my income has not changed since last reported to Basic Health.

❑ My income has changed since last reported to Basic Health. I have enclosed income documentation from all sources for the most recent full calendar month, along with the Family Income Reporting Form.

AGREEMENT AND SIGNATURE

I understand that:

- I must provide proof of my gross family income (before taxes and deductions) and report income changes that would change my premium or eligibility to Basic Health/Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS) within 30 days after the end of the month my income changed.
- By signing this form, I have authorized Basic Health and DSHS to verify my eligibility information and family income with other state or federal agencies or other third-party sources.
- I must report address changes and changes in my family. I must report, for example, my marriage or divorce, or the marriage or divorce of any family member on my account, the birth or adoption of a child, or the date when a child leaves home or is no longer a dependent or is no longer a full-time student.
- My application and the documents I send to Basic Health will be used to determine eligibility for DSHS programs (Basic Health Plus or the Maternity Benefits Program).
- By asking for and receiving DSHS benefits, my family and I assign to the state of Washington our rights to any third-party payment for medical care of covered medical services while receiving medical benefits.
- Basic Health's deposit of my premium payment does not guarantee coverage. The payment will be refunded if I am determined ineligible for coverage.

I authorize my health plan or medical provider to give medical records for me or my children to Basic Health, for purposes of participation in Basic Health/DSHS programs.

I have read and I understand the information provided to me with the Basic Health application. I declare, under penalty of perjury, that the information I have given in this application and the documents I send to Basic Health are true, correct, and complete to the best of my knowledge. I understand that if I or any member of my family, or any person on my behalf, submits false information, my family or I may lose coverage, may be held financially responsible for services obtained under Basic Health or additional premium amounts due, and may face other penalties and prosecution. Any debt owed to the state may be sent to a collection agency for recovery.

Explanation of income types and what to send with your Family Income Reporting Form

Current documentation from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) is required if not already on file with Basic Health:

- Your IRS Form 1040, federal income tax form, and all schedules
- Schedule K-1 for each family member for each S-Corporation, partnership, or trust beneficiary
- A complete IRS transcript, if you do not have a copy of your IRS Form 1040
- Verification of non-filing status from the IRS if you did not file a tax return

To request a transcript or letter of non-filing status, call the IRS at 1-800-829-1040.

Income documentation must include the name of the person paid, the gross amount(s) paid, and the dates paid. Send a full 30 days' documentation for each income source. On a separate sheet, explain any gaps in income. (Always send current documents.) If you need another copy of this form, or would like more information about Basic Health, visit our Web site (www.basichealth.hca.wa.gov).

Do not mail originals to Basic Health; they will not be returned to you.
